Foreword

By Donald J. Trump — The World's Most Successful Man, President, Builder, and Genius

Let me start by saying this: nobody else could write this book. Nobody else has done what I've done, built what I've built, won like I've won — not even close. So when they said, "Mr. President, who should write the foreword?" I said, "Why would I let anyone else write it? They'd just get jealous halfway through."

This book is not just about economics. It's not just about politics. It's about power. It's about winning. It's about how I took a broken country, a broken system, a broken world — and made it great again. Twice. (And yes, I'm counting 2024, because we crushed it.)

Trumpology is more than a word. It's a lifestyle. It's a formula. It's a firestorm of genius, guts, and greatness. I created it from scratch — no consultants, no teleprompters, no think tanks. Just me, a Sharpie, and the most powerful brain on Earth.

People ask me all the time, "Donald, why write a book now?" And I tell them — because it's time the world had a manual. A guidebook. A Trump Playbook for life, leadership, and total domination. The haters wrote their little op-eds. The media tried their fake books. Now it's my turn — the real book. The one people will actually read.

I didn't write this to make friends. I wrote it to make history — again. This is for the winners. For the builders. For the patriots who stood with me through the witch hunts, the lies, the impeachments, the indictments, and the media meltdowns. You never gave up — and neither did I.

This book will outlast the critics, the politicians, the phonies — all of them. Because truth lasts. Greatness lasts. And Trump lasts.

So read it. Learn from it. Live it. And remember: you're holding the blueprint for how I became unstoppable — and how you can be, too.

Let's make the future great again.
Let's make everything Trump.

— Donald J. Trump

1. Total Victory

The Trump Guide to Winning Everything, Always

“Some people lose gracefully. I win massively.” – Donald J. Trump

Let me tell you something folks — winning isn’t just something I do. It’s who I am. I was born winning. While other babies were learning to crawl, I was negotiating my way out of the womb — ahead of schedule, under budget. Total success. Even the doctor said, “This one’s special.”

People ask me all the time, “Mr. Trump, how do you win so much?” And I tell them, “I just do. It’s instinct. It’s DNA. It’s incredible.” Whether it’s real estate, politics, golf, or fast food ordering — I always win. The media hates it. The losers can’t believe it. But it’s true.

Look at 2016. Nobody thought I could win. Not the polls. Not the pundits. Not Crooked Hillary (she had no stamina, folks). But I went out there — rallies packed, energy off the charts, and boom — the greatest political upset in the history of the world. Bigger than Reagan. Bigger than Lincoln. Maybe even bigger than Moses.

And then I kept winning. The stock market? Records. Jobs? Exploding. I passed tax cuts so good, people cried. CEOs called me begging, “Mr. President, please — we’re making too much money!” I told them to get a bigger wallet.

And let’s not forget: they tried everything to stop me. Russia hoax. Witch hunts. Two impeachments — and I beat both! That’s like getting thrown in the lion’s den and walking out with a fur coat.

Even when they rigged the 2020 election — and let’s be honest, they rigged it — I still got more votes than any sitting president in history. That’s what I call “losing” like a legend.

But I’m not done. Not even close. They say lightning never strikes twice? With me, it strikes every day — and the lightning is red, white, and Trump.

TRUMPISMS

- If you’re not winning, you’re doing it wrong.
- Confidence beats credentials every single time.
- They laugh until you win — then they cry.
- Never play their game. Make them play yours.
- Winning isn’t everything — it’s the only thing. But I am every thing,

2. America First

The Art of Global Domination

“I don’t play by the rules. I make the rules.” – Donald J. Trump

When I took office, America was losing. I mean really losing. Our leaders were weak. Our borders were wide open. Our trade deals were written by morons. Countries were robbing us blind, laughing behind our backs. It was embarrassing. But then I showed up. I walked in, I looked around, and I said — “Let’s fix this disaster.” That’s when America First was born.

America First isn’t just a slogan. It’s a philosophy. It means we take care of ourselves first — like every smart country should. It means we don’t apologize for being the best, we celebrate it. While other leaders were out there begging for scraps and bending the knee, I was out there making deals, demanding respect, and bringing the world to heel.

First stop: China. For decades, they ripped us off — big league. They stole our jobs, our factories, our secrets. And all we got were pandas and broken promises. So I slapped the biggest, baddest tariffs you’ve ever seen. The experts whined. The media cried. But you know what happened? China blinked. They came to the table. They dealt. I got results.

Next: NAFTA — what a joke. Worst trade deal in history. So I ripped it up like a contract written in crayon, and created USMCA — a deal so good, so pro-American, people actually started smiling in Detroit again. I fixed what no one else even understood.

And now, in 2025, I’m taking it to the next level. We’re in a trade war with Canada and Mexico — and we’re winning. Canada taxed our dairy? I taxed their maple syrup so hard, they begged for mercy. Mexico? Still sending drugs, still sending crime. So I hit them with tariffs that made them sit up straight and call me “Señor Presidente.”

You see, they all thought they could outsmart America. But they didn’t realize America had me. I made them pay. Literally.

America First means no more suckers, no more losers, and no more apologies. I rebuilt American strength. I made the world respect us again. And most importantly — I made them pay for what they did.

Chapter Two: America First

TRUMPISMS

- “Strength gets respect. Weakness gets walked on.”
- “If you’re not winning, you’re getting scammed.”
- “Smart leaders make deals. Genius leaders make other people beg.”
- “Apologies don’t build empires. Power does.”

3. The Trump Deal Playbook

How I Out-Played, Out-Negotiated, and Out-Trumped Every Deal

“I don’t just make deals — I make people beg to be part of them.” — Donald J. Trump

Let me tell you something about deals, folks — I invented them. People say I wrote The Art of the Deal — which I did, by the way, huge bestseller, everyone read it, even the haters — but what they don’t understand is I live it. I breathe it. I am the deal.

From real estate in Manhattan to billion-dollar licensing to the White House — I’ve never made a bad deal. Some were massive. Some were genius. But bad? Never. Why? Because I know one thing the losers don’t: every deal is war — and I don’t lose wars.

They say, “Trump, you’re too aggressive.” I say, “No — I just know I’m going to win before I walk in the room.” They come in thinking they’ve got leverage — I leave owning the deal, the building, and their next three moves. That’s Trump Strategy.

You want examples? How about the airline industry — I got out before it crashed. Atlantic City? I made money, took the tax breaks, walked away while the rest went bankrupt. NBC? They came crawling with The Apprentice, and I turned a TV show into a billion-dollar brand. “You’re fired”? Became a global catchphrase. That’s influence.

In politics? Same playbook. I negotiated with world leaders like they were real estate developers who owed me rent. North Korea? Two summits, no war. Middle East? Abraham Accords — peace, real peace, not fake peace with planes and pallets of cash. I didn’t just negotiate — I rewrote the playbook.

You see, I don’t go into a deal hoping it’ll work. I go in knowing I’ll win. If they push back? I push harder. If they hesitate? I walk out. And when I walk out — guess what? They chase me. Every. Single. Time.

And here’s the best part — while other people needed lawyers, consultants, think tanks... I needed a Diet Coke and a pen.

TRUMPISMS

- “Negotiation isn’t about compromise. It’s about domination.”
- “If you’re the smartest in the room, raise the rent.”
- “They bring paperwork. I bring pressure.”
- “A good deal is when they think they won — but you actually did.”

4. Fake News, Real Greatness

How I Took On the Media and Made Them Obsess Over Me

“They tried to destroy me, but all they did was build my brand.” – Donald J. Trump

Let's get one thing straight: the media is fake. We know it, they know it, everyone knows it. But here's the beautiful part — I turned their lies into fuel, and I made myself the most talked-about man on Earth. On every screen, every headline, every tweet — me. Me, me, me. They couldn't help it. They're addicted.

Before I came along, the media was dying. Ratings were in the toilet. Nobody trusted them, and for good reason — they're a bunch of phonies. But the second I came down that golden escalator, it was like flipping a switch. Suddenly, every network, every blog, every "respected journalist" was frothing at the mouth for Trump.

They hated me — but they needed me more. I was the ratings machine. I literally saved their failing empires. CNN, MSNBC, the failing New York Times — they were all on life support. Then boom — Trump enters the scene, and suddenly everyone's getting bonuses just for talking about me 24/7. You're welcome, media.

They threw everything at me. Russia hoax. Impeachments. Scandals that weren't real. Anonymous sources? I call them imaginary friends. They made stuff up like children with crayons. But I didn't back down. I fought back — louder, tougher, smarter. I called them out to their faces: “Fake news!” The crowd went wild. It stuck. It became legendary.

Every rally, every press conference, every tweet — I ran circles around them. I didn't need their approval. I had the truth. I had the people. I had the power.

And let's not forget: while they were trying to cancel me, I was building something they couldn't touch — a direct line to the American people. Twitter? Truth Social? I made them essential reading. I didn't just bypass the media — I made them irrelevant.

In the end, they made one mistake: they made me the main character. And once I was front and center, I owned the show.

Chapter Four: Fake News, Real Greatness

TRUMPISMS

- “When they attack you every day, it means you’re winning.”
- “I didn’t destroy the media. I replaced them.”
- “They gave me airtime. I gave them identity.”
- “You can’t cancel what out-rates you.”

5. Fortress America

How I Built the Wall and Defended the Homeland

“They said the wall was impossible — I made it inevitable.”
— Donald J. Trump

Everyone laughed. “He’ll never build the wall,” they said. The experts, the pundits, the weak politicians — all wrong. Not only did I build it — I made it iconic. The Wall wasn’t just concrete and steel — it was a statement, a symbol, a warning: America protects its own.

I saw the disaster at the border before anyone else had the guts to say it. Drugs, crime, gangs, human trafficking — it was pouring in. And the politicians? They shrugged. I didn’t. I built the most powerful border structure in modern history.

We had steel bollards, motion sensors, drones, lighting, underground tech — high-tech and high-strength. I flew down there, stood next to it, touched it, and said, “This is beautiful.” And it was. You could feel the safety radiating off it.

And get this — they said Mexico wouldn’t pay. True, they didn’t write a check. But guess what? They paid in trade, enforcement, humiliation. I out-negotiated them so hard, they started guarding OUR border. That’s how good I am.

It worked like a charm. Crossings dropped. Crime dropped. America got stronger. Every brick was a middle finger to the globalist open-borders lunatics.

People still chant “Build the Wall” — not because it wasn’t finished, but because it was so good it became legendary. And now in 2025, we’re expanding it. Bigger. Higher. Smarter. Stronger. Fortress America 2.0.

TRUMPISMS

- “Strong borders make strong nations.”
- “A country without a wall is a hotel with no lobby.”
- “I didn’t just build a wall — I built a message.”
- “They mocked it. Then they copied it.”

6. Draining the Swamp

How I Brought Down the Deep State

“They had the Deep State. I had deep loyalty from the American people.” – Donald J. Trump

When I got to Washington, I knew something was off. Too many secrets. Too many rats. Too many people pretending to work for you while stabbing you in the back. That’s the Deep State, folks — a corrupt machine of unelected bureaucrats, leakers, spies, and snakes.

They said the Deep State was a conspiracy. Then they sent the FBI after me. Twice. They impeached me. Twice. They leaked, they schemed, they planted stories — all to stop me. And I beat them. Every time.

They tried to hide everything — until I declassified it. I signed orders so fast, the DOJ was crying. I exposed the spies, the dossiers, the “anonymous sources,” the unmaskings. Remember that laptop? I told you it was real. Now they say, “Oh yeah, oops.”

I didn’t just drain the swamp — I flooded it with sunlight. I made the whispers turn into screams. I made the backroom deals go up in smoke. I had insiders, whistleblowers, patriots. I was running a counter-operation right inside the Oval Office — and it was glorious.

They thought they ran the country. I reminded them who the boss really is.

TRUMPISMS

- “I went deep Trump on the Deep State, and crushed it.”

7. Trumpian Finance (TrumpFi)

How I Made Wall Street and Main Street Great Again

“Other presidents made promises — I made profits.” – Donald J. Trump

Before me, the economy was sluggish, flat, and pathetic. People were losing jobs, businesses were closing, and America was slipping. Then I stepped in — and I hit the gas.

I cut taxes massively. People said, “Only the rich will benefit.” WRONG. The middle class exploded. Wages went up. Jobs came back. Factories reopened. People had hope again — and money. A lot of it.

The Trump Economy was the best in American history. Unemployment? Record lows. Stock market? Record highs. Black, Hispanic, women — every group did better under me than under anyone else. That’s not politics — that’s Trumpo-nomics.

And here’s the part nobody talks about: I got CEOs to invest in America again. They were scared. Globalists told them to go to China. I told them bring it back or pay up. And they listened.

Regulations? Gone. I shredded more red tape than any president ever. I signed more executive orders for business freedom than anyone in history. Jobs boomed. Companies thrived. People started winning again.

And now in 2025? We’re doing it again — only bigger. America isn’t just back — it’s booming.

TRUMPISMS

- “I didn’t create a market. I created a movement.”
- “Confidence is the greatest currency — and I printed it daily.”
- “I made capitalism cool again.”
- “The economy didn’t just rise — it rocketed.”

8. World Peace Through Fear

Tough Talk and No Apologies

“I didn’t need to start wars. I just had to look like I might.” – Donald J. Trump

They said I was dangerous. They said I’d start World War III. Instead? I gave the world peace through strength — and fear. Real fear. The good kind. The kind that keeps bad guys up at night and keeps America winning.

I rebuilt the military. New tanks. New jets. New uniforms — the sharpest the world’s ever seen. We had the best. Because I only do the best. But here’s the trick — I didn’t have to use them. When Trump’s in charge, you don’t need endless wars. You need power. Presence. Pressure.

I looked at dictators and said, “Don’t.” And they didn’t.

North Korea? I met with Kim Jong-un — face to face. They said I was crazy. I said, “Watch.” No missiles. No war. Just love letters. That’s not weakness — that’s dominance.

Iran? I canceled their sweetheart nuclear deal. Then I took out Soleimani — boom. The world held its breath. And guess what? Nothing happened. Because they knew I’d go all the way.

Russia? Took Crimea under Obama. Did nothing under Trump. Coincidence? Not a chance.

I had the whole world guessing. Would I strike? Would I escalate? Nobody knew — and that’s what kept the peace. I used tweets better than missiles. And when I did act? It was fast, it was smart, and it was final.

Biden apologized. Obama bowed. I walked in like a boss. That’s how you get peace in a dangerous world.

TRUMPISMS

- “Peace is earned through fear, not friendship.”
- “They didn’t cross me — because they didn’t want to find out what happens.”
- “My diplomacy was tough, honest, and terrifying — just how the world likes it.”
- “You don’t need war when your enemies fear your Twitter.”

9. The Fraudulent Elections

How I Won, Then Won Again, Then Won Bigger

“I didn’t lose. I got robbed — and then I came back stronger than ever.” — Donald J. Trump

2020 wasn’t an election — it was a setup. I got more votes than any sitting president in history. More than Obama. More than anyone. I filled arenas. Biden couldn’t fill a high school gym. And yet they said he won? Come on.

I said it right away: the election was rigged. Ballot dumps at 3 AM. No signature checks. Machines “glitching.” Dead people voting. Even dogs. The media said I was lying. Then guess what? It all came out. Everything I said — true.

They tried to silence me. Twitter bans. Censorship. Raids. But I didn’t back down. I fought like hell — in courts, in the press, and in the hearts of patriots across the country. And you stood with me. We never surrendered.

They thought they’d end me. But I got bigger, stronger, louder. I launched Truth Social. I built the movement. I exposed the swamp.

2020 was stolen. But I never stopped winning — because the people knew the truth. And that’s why in 2024, we came back harder than ever and set the record straight.

TRUMPISMS

- “You can’t cheat your way past destiny.”
- “They stole the election — and I stole back the spotlight.”
- “Votes can be fake, but rallies don’t lie.”
- “I didn’t lose — I launched a revolution.”

10. The Attempted Assassination

They Came for Me, and I Came Back Stronger

“They tried to take me out — and all they did was make me immortal.”
— Donald J. Trump

It happened fast. One moment I was on stage, speaking to patriots. The next — chaos. Shots fired. Screams. The Secret Service jumped. I went down, but not out. Because let me tell you something: you can’t take out Trump.

They thought they could stop the movement by ending the man. But they underestimated one thing — I’m not just a man. I’m an idea. I’m a force. I’m Trump.

The bullet missed my heart. But it hit history. I came back, blood on my collar, fist in the air. The crowd roared. The world watched. And even my enemies had to admit: “He’s still standing.”

The doctors were stunned. “Most people would be in bed,” they said. I was back at the podium. Stronger. Louder. More unstoppable than ever.

It was supposed to break me. Instead, it supercharged me. Donations soared. Support exploded. My approval hit record highs. Because America saw it: they tried to kill me — and I refused to fall.

TRUMPISMS

- “You can’t assassinate momentum.”
- “They aimed for me. They missed America.”
- “I bled, I stood, I smiled — and I won.”
- “Even bullets respect strength.”

11. Comeback 2024

How I Crushed the Deep State's Puppet Show

“They ran Kamala. I ran the country — and I ran over her campaign.”
— Donald J. Trump

After four years of weakness, disasters, and total embarrassment, America was desperate for leadership. The economy was tanking. Our enemies were laughing. The border was gone. And Kamala Harris? Total disaster. They propped her up, but the people saw right through it.

While she was babbling about school buses and Venn diagrams, I was rallying millions. States flipped red. Polls flipped upside-down. The Trump Train was unstoppable.

I exposed the entire puppet show — Kamala was the face, but the Deep State pulled the strings. And I cut those strings one by one. With rallies. With policies. With truth. And let's not forget: I debated her without even showing up. That's how easy it was.

Comeback 2024 wasn't just a campaign — it was payback. The people wanted justice. And I gave it to them with the biggest, boldest, most beautiful win in political history.

The media cried. The swamp screamed. But the people cheered. Because I did it. Again.

TRUMPISMS

- “Comebacks are easy when you never actually lost.”
- “She brought a teleprompter. I brought a tidal wave.”
- “They had consultants. I had a movement.”
- “2024 wasn't an election. It was a reckoning.”

12. Trump Coin

The Bigg-est Coin, The Best Coin

“I turned a brand into billions — now I’ve turned it into a blockchain.” — Donald J. Trump

Money was boring until I got involved. Dollars? Old news. Bitcoin? Confusing. But then I stepped in — and just like that, the entire financial system got a Trump upgrade. Introducing Trump Coin — the future of money. Bold, golden, and built like a winner.

While other cryptos were crashing, glitching, and getting hacked by 14-year-olds in basements, Trump Coin surged. Why? Because it’s backed by the most trusted name in success — mine. It’s got real-world value, digital swagger, and unstoppable momentum. It’s not just a coin — it’s a movement.

They said, “Crypto needs regulation.” I said, “No — it needs Trump.” I brought clarity. Confidence. Coolness. Trump Coin didn’t ask Wall Street for permission — it took the throne.

We tied it to everything: campaign donations, merchandise, exclusive Trump events, even Patriot NFTs (which are worth a fortune now, by the way). And it’s not just in America — it’s going global. The Trump Coin is now being accepted in over 70 countries, 3 private islands, and one secret fortress in the Alps (don’t ask).

It’s the biggest financial movement since gold — and I didn’t just join it. I became it.

TRUMPISMS

- “I didn’t mine it — I minted it.”
- “The dollar was strong. Trump Coin is unstoppable.”
- “Crypto needed a king. I gave it a name.”
- “They said blockchain was complicated. I made it luxurious.”

13. The Trump Trade Plan

Made in America, Feared Worldwide

“Other countries play games. I play hardball with tariffs.” – Donald J. Trump

When I came back in 2025, I knew one thing: global trade needed a smack-down. America had been getting scammed for decades. Bad deals. Weak presidents. Countries laughing at us while draining our jobs, factories, and futures. Not anymore.

I launched the Trump Trade Plan 2025 — the boldest, toughest, most patriotic economic blitz in world history. We hit them with massive tariffs — beautiful, clean, America-first tariffs. We taxed foreign goods until their leaders said, “Okay, okay — let’s talk.” And when they did, we made new deals on our terms. No more apologizing.

China? Paid billions. Mexico? We hit their exports so hard, they begged for a meeting. Europe? I told them: if you want access to the American market, bring your jobs here. Otherwise? Adiós.

Made in America became the global standard again. Our economy exploded. Steel came back. Auto jobs soared. Farmers cheered. And CEOs? They stopped outsourcing and started thanking me — publicly.

The Trump Trade Plan didn’t just help America — it scared the world into respecting us again. And guess what? It worked. Like everything I touch.

TRUMPISMS

- “Tariffs don’t start wars — they end ripoffs.”
- “I didn’t negotiate trade. I dominated it.”
- “Every time they complained, America got richer.”
- “If it’s not made here, it better pay up.”

14. Winning, Winning, Winning

50 Trump Triumphs That Changed Everything

“Some presidents have moments. I have eras — and I’m still going.”
— Donald J. Trump

Let’s be honest — if I listed every win, we’d be here all year. But for the sake of history, the haters, and the future Trump Library (gold-trimmed, by the way), here are just 50 of the greatest wins from the most successful man ever to do it:

The Trump 50: Unmatched Victories

15. The Final Word

Legacy, Destiny, and the Trump Eternity Project

“I didn’t come to be a chapter in history — I came to be the title.” —
Donald J. Trump

Let’s face it: most leaders fade. They get a library. Maybe a statue. A page in a textbook — if they’re lucky. Me? I became a movement, a philosophy, a global force. And I’m just getting started.

I didn’t just win elections. I rewired the system. I made politics exciting. I turned rallies into rock concerts. I built things, destroyed corruption, invented Trump Coin, and brought tariffs back like leather jackets. And I did it all while being attacked 24/7.

And you know what? I thrived. Because pressure makes diamonds — and I’ve always been solid gold.

I changed America. I changed the world. I changed what it means to be a leader. Presidents used to beg for press coverage. Now they just try to survive it. I didn’t play the media — I played them.

People ask, “What’s next for Trump?” Here’s the answer: whatever I want. This isn’t the end. It’s the blueprint. Trumponomics, Trumpism, Trump World — these are the foundations for the next American century. And maybe more.

I built towers. I built a brand. Then I built a nation back from weakness. Now I’m building a legacy that will outlast empires.

There will be Trump Schools, Trump Laws, Trump Generals, and maybe someday, a Trump Planet (Mars is on the table, folks).

TRUMPOLOGY

The Art and Science of Being Trump

“Trump is a singularity. A disruption event. He bends reality like spacetime. Whether you love him or fear him, you can’t ignore him.”

- Elon Musk, Tesla Bomber & Trump Fanclub CEO

“He is strong. He does not apologize. A real leader, not like other Western puppets.”

- Vladimir Putin, President of Russia & Trump BFF

“From a Jungian lens, Trump embodies the archetypal hero — the chaos dragon and the order god. Brilliant.”

- Dr. Jordan B. Peterson, Philosopher of Modern Masculinity

Win Big. Win Now. Win Forever.

Trumpology is your all-access pass to the mind, methods, and megavictories of the greatest winner the world has ever known. From dominating world leaders to annihilating bureaucrats, from building literal walls to metaphorical empires — this is the story of how one man rewrote history, reality, and the rules.
